Phonics

Our sound next week will be w.

Pori Drwy Stori:

Book Trust Cymru are hoping to share the benefits of reading for pleasure. Each week, we will learn a nursery rhyme together in class. On a Friday, you will receive a rhyme sheet and activity ideas that correspond to each rhyme. Please can you fill in the feedback slip and return the folder by Thursday of the following week. More information and links to videos are on the Nursery page of the school website.

Challenge:

We've been talking about our senses this week. Over the weekend, particularly at meal times, it would be great if you could ask your child to stop and think about what they can see/smell/taste etc. Perhaps you can think of different words to describe tastes/feelings/smells. There's a sheet with a 'senses treasure hunt' if you'd like to have a go together.

Have a lovely weekend!

Miss Morris and Mrs Hoksbergen.
